

SUPPLY CHAIN RADAR

DATA-BASED CONTROL OF SUPPLIERS AND SUPPLY CHAINS

TARGET GROUP

- The Supply Chain Act obliges companies to monitor their entire supply chain from raw materials to the final product with regard to a legal and environmental catalogue of requirements.
- Companies in Germany or companies that are subject to the law of a member state of the EU are legally obliged to monitor their supply chain from 2023. In addition to companies listed on the stock exchange, the regulation will also apply to small and medium-sized enterprises that are associated with a high level of risk.
